SENIORS

Class History

The Class of 1943 entered Morley School with ten pupils they were:

Dorothy Baute	John Brokaw
Gene Eldred	Judith Filter
Robert Gerjets	Janice Parks
Larry Stingley	Nancy Jayne
Keith Vernon	Opal Clary

Our first grade teacher was Mrs. Oldfield.

During our second grade we lost Robert Gerjets, Larry Stinley, Nancy Jayne and Opal Clary but before the year closed we had gained Merlin and Viola Hoffman, so our class still had eight pupils with Mrs. Oldfield as our teacher.

In the fall of 1944 we found ourselves in a different room and a new teacher, Frances Smith. We had one new third grader, Ervin Wells, so our class now numbered only seven for we lost Janice Parks and Judy Filter.

During our fourth year of school with Frances Smith still our teacher we hit an all time record for we gained five new pupils in 1946, they were Junior Gerdes, Jimmy Tallman, Lonnie Hinrichsen, Janet Siver and Douglas Lessard. Now our total was twelve.

In the fall of 1947 we found ourselves upstairs in the fifth grade. Our teacher was Mrs. Barger with an enrollment of thirteen for La Donna Laurence had joined our group. Before too long we lost Douglas Lessard but gained Gerry Hornmann so our class still held its number.

The fall of 1948 found us in sixth grade only to lose Merlin and Viola Hoffman, Ervin Wells and Jerry Hornman. Their places were soon to be filled by Jerry Pearson, Dorothy Lewis and Keith Techau.

We began our seventh grade work under the supervision of three teachers, because of the combining of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Our teachers were Mr. Ridout, Miss Ament and Mrs. Barger. We had in our class eleven pupils who remained together until March when we lost Jerry Pearson, Keith Techau and Dorothy Lewis leaving us with eight to start our eighth grade.

In the fall of 1950 we were suprised to have Bob Read and Clorene McCormick boast our enrollment to ten by moving to Morley. More surprises followed during our third week of school when Clara Pillard, Allen Eden and Sandra Joslin joined our group, now we had a real bakers dozen for we numbered thirteen. We weren't at all superstitious but at the same time thirteen is often an unlucky number so we welcombed with open arms Gladys Swartz who joined our group during our third six weeks. Now we had fourteen, the largest enrollment in our eight years, consisting of eight boys and six girls namely.

Keith Vernon	Dorothy Baute
John Brokaw	Clorene McCormick
Gene Eldred	Janet Siver
Bob Read	Clara Pillard
Jimmy Tallman	Gladys Swarts
Junior Gerdes	Sandra Joslin
Lonnie Hinrichsen
Allen Eden

The class of 1955 emerged into high school feeling very grown-up and wise. We numbered ten and consisted of Keith Vernon, John Brokaw, Gene Eldred, Jimmy Tallman, Junior Gerdes, Lonnie Hinrichsen, Allen Eden, Janet Siver, Clara Pillard and Sandra Joslin. One of our teachers for this year, who was also the superident, was Mr. Greenawald. Our other teachers were Mr. Ridout who was also our principal and Mrs Russell the English and Music teacher. We also gained Leo Nissen and Wanda Stewart and Jackie Johnson.

There was a drastic reduction in our class number when Jacqueline Johnsen, Sandra Joslin and Janet Siver moved away. Our teachers for the year were Mr. Greenawald, Mr. Ridout, Mrs Russell and Miss Miller, and we were also pleased however that Nancy Jayne rejoined our class.

We entered the eleventh grade with nine remaining members who continued and finished together the happiest years our lives. During our Junior year, Mrs Bair, Mr. Greenawald, Mr. Ridout were our teachers. The following year these remained the same with the exception of Mrs. Bair who was replaced by Mrs. Russell.

Class Will

We the Senior Class of 1955 being of sound mind and good judgement do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

We the Senior Class will our ability to pick out our own class play to the future Senior Class.

I Lonnie Hinrichsen will my boxing techniques to Maynard Van Antwerp. I will my old girlfriends and old dates to Arnold Pye. I hope that Arnold has more fun with them than I did.

I John Brokaw will my ability to take girls home from church to Darrell Hora.

I Jr. Gerdes will the backfenders of my old FORD to Priscilla Pillard so that she will save fenders when she cuts in so close after passing a car. I also will my height and strength to Janice Wilken.

I Gene Eldred will my ability to get stuck in my girl friends driveway to Charles Holcomb. Judy Shankland lives on a new road so watch out Charles.

I Clara Pillard will my collection of boy friends to Margo Ruhl. I will my collection of boys pictures to Marilyn Hoppe. To my sister, Priscilla, I leave those 6 packages of gum that I lost at play practice.

I Nancy Jayne will my figuring to Shirley Holdren.

I Keith Vernon will my interest in certain grocery store clerks to Ronnie Findley. To Bill Ruhl I leave my drivers license so that he can still remain in competition. Bill will be down soon Carol G.

I Allen Eden will my interest in girls who are in the sophomore class to Francis Conner. L.B. is a sophomore as you all know.

We, Keith Vernon, John Brokaw, and Jr. Gerdes will our ability to NEVER have our Literature done on time to the three Sophomore girls. Nothing like keeping it in the family is there John? C.H. you know.

I Jim Tallman will my ability to always have my Literature done on time to Lois Stolte. I also will my ability to park in the wrong alley with "You Know Who" to Dick Blake. Lets not over do it Dick.

We the Class will to Mr. Greenawald a wig to replace all the ~~hair~~ we have caused him to tear out.

The class also wills to Mr. Ridout a dog collar with a bell on it to be worn around his leg to warn unsuspecting classes of his un-noticed approaches.

To Mrs. Russell we leave a new set of chairs to replace the ones that always made so much noise ~~during~~ Literature Classes.

To the school we leave nothing as we have given away all that we won't need in the future.

Senior Prophecy

We had just finished dinner. Nancy was picking up the dishes, so I thought I'd lie down long enough to "catch a few winks" before I went out in the hot sun again....during haying a guy feels like "flopping" whenever he can. But before I reached the couch, there was Nancy, with a twinkle in her eye, holding out to me an impressive looking envelope.

"It's from Junior Gerdes," she said, "and there's a Master Sgt. in front of his name. I knew if I gave it to you before dinner, everything would be cold before you got around to eat."

I smiled back. She had gotten to know me and my habits pretty well these past 18 years, of course, I knew hers too, but I wouldn't dare mention the fact.

"Well", she asked, "aren't you going to open it?"

"Maybe I Should", I replied, as I started to tear the envelope open. But I was still looking at the impressive rank in front of Juniors' name, and my thoughts were wandering way back to 1955, the year we graduated from Morley High.

There were nine of us.....all boys but two.....Nancy who I married after I got out of the Army....and Clara Pillard, who enrolled at Iowa State Teachers right after graduation. Looking back, I remember it now: none of us boys could make very definite plans for the future...there was still a threat of an all out war....and we knew that selective service would catch up with us before long. Factories and other places of employment were reluctant to hire those just out of High School, because they knew they would no more than get trained until we'd be leaving for the service. Sometimes down in the locker room we'd have "bull sessions"....and discuss the

We were about a hundred percent in agreement that the soon we got it over with the better.

Lonnie and I both wanted to get it over with in the fewest years possible....after all, we did have definite plans.....that's why we took the Army. Gene wanted college...., and Priscilla wasn't through school, so he thought a couple of years at Ames, before the Service would suit his purpose better....that way he could take some military training in college and come out a "2nd Louie". So he kept talking Ames. Keith and Allen had been "buddies" all through high school, so it wasn't too much of a surprise when they talked Navy instead of Army. Lonnie liked the Navy too....but the enlistment period was too long for him. John always said he wanted to be a singer.....so he'd shrug his shoulders and jokingly say, that maybe they'd let him sing in an Air Corps' Chorus someplace. We all knew we had to give a few years of our youth to "Uncle Sam" and of course we were all willing to do so....for then in later life if we decided to buy a chunk of land, or a business....we would know that we as Americans had earned the right to buy it, because we had first proved that we were willing to defend it. Yes, even then, we had a clear picture of what it means to be a good American....but it was Junior who really dropped the bomb shell when he said he intended to make a career of the Army.

And he had; for here after 20 years he must still be in uniform.

I guess I must have looked a little odd, because Nancy said: "Why don't you get that silly grin off your face and open it? We haven't heard anything of Junior for at least 10 years. "And.... she added "please, read it aloud."

"Dear Jim"....It started....."I see by the Anamosa paper you are still around Morley. Farming, eh? I've been a subscriber to the local paper ever since I entered the service. It's the best way I know to keep up with the home town news. But in the past years yours' and Nancy's names are about the only ones out of our graduation class that I ever see mentioned. Where is the rest of "our gang"? I'm getting out of service next month, and I just wondered if maybe we might be able to get together someplace. I'm retiring. I paused and looked at Nancy. "Retiring", I said, "already?" "Well, it has been 20 years", Nancy sighed. I said that it sure didn't seem that long ago since one and then the other of us enlisted. Then, as I was thinking how fast the time had flown, I recalled something Junior had said just before we graduated: "I'm going to make a career out of the Army....where else can you retire after 20 years on a good pension? The rest of us said: "Baloney" at the time...but now I wondered.

I started to read again: "I'm retiring. You see I've saved a nice little "goose egg" and I think I'll build me a little chicken ranch out here on the west coast...this California weather has really got me. But, before I start anything as important as that, I'm coming back to Iowa. I'll be dropping in about five weeks from Sun., if that's O.K.. Will you see what you can do about rounding up "the gang" and let me know? Be seeing you....Junior."

"Do you suppose we can paper the kitchen before then?" Nancy asked.

"Sure....sure....anything....." I mused.

Getting the "gang" together was more of a chore than I figured. Finding Lonnie was easy he and Carol and their three boys were back, from their farm in Ill., last year when Carol's class gathered for a picnic....and afterwards they had called on us. Their boys had made quite an impression on our Suzie....she's just at the "boy crazy" stage. But we really were surprised when Carol walked in carrying another little son in her arms. Lonnie said Carol had wanted a girl; she said that wasn't so, that he was the one that was disappointed....that he didn't even look at it for three days. But I noticed they both secretly gloried in the boy.

Keith wasn't too hard to find. He's a veterinarian now. After the Navy he had taken advantage of the schooling he could get and he's sure doing fine for himself....a new lavender Ford....a pretty blond "doll" for a wife, and a three year old the very image of her mom, but with Keith's beautiful curls. He's practicing up around Waterloo.

After a long distance phone call to Des Moines, I located Gene. He's following in his fathers' shoes. After service...first a model farmer and then a Representative. He and Priscilla flew in for the occasion, landing in our pasture. That way they could spend the night on the old home place....and still be back in time for Mondays' morning session. They haven't any children but I heard Gene tell Lonnie they'd be glad to take the new nephew back with them.

Gene gave me Clara's address, when I phoned him. She was way out in Neb., so I had to write her....and I didn't know, even the morning of the gathering, whether she would be there or not. But in she came...driving her own car too....a '74 Chevrolet. She didn't look a day, well, not much more than a day...older than when we graduated. And she was wearing a diamond big enough to put your eyes out. She's been teaching school in a smalltown out there for 12 years now....and the Banker finally got up nerve enough to ask her. She says, she waited 12 years for him to ask her....now he can wait 12 months while she gets her hope chest completed. The whole class is invited to the wedding too...so maybe we'll meet again.

John teaches music at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon...and he also sings every Wednesday night over WMT - TV. Nancy and I always sit spellbound by our TV set that night. This three dimension, color TV is so real that it's almost like he is here in the room with us... but when we unconsciously speak to him, he never answers...except to smile and sing another song. He's a busy man but he too took time to come. His wife teaches history at the college. They have an eight year old son and a five year old daughter, but they didn't have the children along. "We needed a little relaxation away from those two", John said, five and eight, and already using a college vocabulary...and the questions they can ask!"

Allen,... well, it took some time to locate him. Not that his fame isn't known all over these parts and far beyond. But you never know where he is going to be. It's been that way ever since he invented that contraption that changes the channel on a TV set by one's thought waves. The device works wonderfully well when there is only one person in the room... but can be a terrible headache when there are several. He did manage to get here in time for dinner... landing in his helicopter almost in front of the door. Allen is still single...never had time to do any courting...too busy with his inventions...but now that he's always "popping up" in the news...he's getting proposals every day. While we were eating I heard Gene's voice: "Say Allen, can't you figure out some other way to control those darn things? Priss and I are always at odds about the program that we are going to listen to. Our brain waves clash when we get as close to the set as we can...then all we get is static." "Sure I can settle that," said Allen. "Just buy another set and be sure to put them in different rooms". "Then you can use your brain power on one and she can use hers on the other. The only thing is: its too bad to waste that much brain power in one evening".

It did prove to be a nice get-together. When we turned out the lights that night Nancy turned to me and said:"You know, I'm glad I turned down that chance of becoming a model... it's much more fun on Sunday afternoons to take my easel and paint the beautiful scenery around here ...but tomorrow I am going to start a new picture. In fact, I'm going to paint two of them. I might even give one of them to Clara as a wedding present. The first one will be like our class back in 1955....a bunch of happy eager kids...and the other one like we are today... men and women typical of all America...twenty years older and maybe a little less "cock-sure" but wiser and more contented."

I yawned. "Yep, those would be some pictures! Say, Nancy, I just happened to think... Junior meant it when he said he was going to make the army his career so that he could retire in twenty years (lucky dog) but he must have changed his mind about having only one date in a year....remember ??? Back in the good old days even a cute little "trick" like Margo could not tempt him to have more than one. But surely that gorgeous red-head didn't marry him after only one date. If he didn't change his mind...he must have started courting her a long time ago.

I guess she didn't think that remark was funny. Anyway all she said was:"Good night, Jim."

Say D.H. how about these lights going off when you go to see a certain Freshman girl with the initials of J.W.?

We heard K.H. has had quite an experience in learning how to bark like a dog, especially at the State Musice Contest at Martelle.

K.V. has been doing quite a bit of running back and forth to Anamosa by the means of a new car. Who is the special attraction?

I heard M.R. has a crush on somebody at Anamosa by the name of Bill W. So we hear by means of the grapevine.

D.B. sure wishes he had a drivers licence then he could really go places instead of on horse back.

Been hearing that quiet M.H. has got her eyes on some tall and handsome fellow in Olin. Isn't that right?

R.F. tells D.B. that it sure is nice to have his drivers licence but now he has to find a girl. Those two ought to get together.

What's this that we have been hearing? Has it something to do with bells, L.H.?

Been to Monticello lately J.G.? You might try again. If at first you don't succeed try and try again.

Say G.E., better watch those muddy roads after this, wouldn't want to miss sleeping in that nice soft bed.

What's this about A.E. taking all the girls home from Play Practice! Was it because C.H. was along?

Was wondering sho C.H. had his eyes on. Who is she?

Hey J.B., taken any girls home from church lately?

We heard that S.H. has her eyes on someone that is slightly tall. I wonder who he is!!!!

There is a new romance which came up during the early spring between Maynard V.A. and R.R. Isn't that right?

I guess C.H. has given up on a certain boy. Started prospecting yet?

Just in case you didn't know about this romance between L.S. and P.Mc. you sure know it now.

J.T. is still keeping her eyes on the fellows and waiting for the time when she becomes a Junior.

D.J. is still looking around, but we wouldn't know about that blonde fellow would we?

J.T. I hear you have been having quite a time. How about it N.J.?

P.P. is it fun to sit under the stop light? Why G.E.
